PRESENTATION OF THE MESSAGE

A. THE BACKGROUND TO THE WORD AND CONTEXTUAL MEANING

- Paul's letter to the Ephesians brethren was written from prison. Far beyond his imprisonment physically, there are spiritual connotations.
- What are the implications of being in prison?
- Confinement, Restrictions, Denial of freedom either completely or relatively, humiliation, rejection and dejection, pains, loneliness, loss of comfort, psychological drain.
- However, with all these Paul still identify himself not a prisoner of man but Christ. Is Christ put Paul in prison Yes & No!

B. STATE OF IMPRISONMENT TODAY

- 1 Cor. 2:2. Jesus was crucified for our salvation, does this matter to you?
- Gal. 2:20: Are truly being crucified with Christ, if then, while living your former life?
- 1 Cor. 6:20; 7:23: Is it some part of you that is bought by Christ or all?
- Gal. 6:17: Which Mark Of Christ Do you Bear or are you bearing?

C. OUR IMPRISONMENT THAT CHAINED US UP IN CHRIST

- Stop talking the way you want, you are a prisoner, your freedom to talk anyhow is taken from you.
- Stop behaving the way want, you are been restricted and confined
- Stop living anyhow, your life is hidden in Christ, you are free.
- Stop dressing the way you want, you are wearing the mark of Christ in you.
- Stop manner, because prisoner are not allowed to operate the way they want except as directed.
- All your right to certain lifestyle have been taken from you, you are not your own.

CONCLUSION

- Do you accept being a prisoner of Christ?
- Live like one, but if not, serve your master the devil, because he is lousy and carefree. Everything is permissible or allowed with him.
- With us everything is lawful but not everything is permissible. 1 Cor. 6:12; 10:23
- Galatians 2:20
